

Footing

Call for inspection BEFORE cement is poured. Forms should be placed on suitable soil with the required reinforcing rods. The continuous forms should also have the correct width and depth. Bleeders may be required in wet soil.

Zoning setbacks (distance from lot lines road, property lines, etc.) are also re-verified at this time.

